

The problem:

Statistical information is dispersed, especially in the US

The solution:

<https://fred.stlouisfed.org/>

One-stop shop for socio-economic data

- 107 data sources
- 815,000 times series
- US and international data (OECD, IMF, WB, BIS, some national statistical offices and central banks)
- Some academics and commercial data
- Free to use, copyrights may apply.

More than just data

- Graphing from several sources on the website

More than just data

- User account (save data, graphs, email notifications)
- Mobile apps (iOS, Android)
- Dashboards
- Public API
- Software plug-ins (Excel, statistical software)
- Mapping geographic data
- Data release calendars and tables
- Vintage data
- Pedagogical blog

- <https://fred.stlouisfed.org>
- <https://fredaccount.stlouisfed.org>
- <https://api.stlouisfed.org>
- <https://alfred.stlouisfed.org>
- <https://fredblog.stlouisfed.org>

- Provided by <https://research.stlouisfed.org>