

Econ Lowdown:

Student and teacher resources for data literacy and now a data literacy certification for librarians

Christian Zimmermann
Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
@zimm\_economist

EconLowdown

- <https://www.econlowdown.org/>
- Economics, personal finance and data literacy resources
- Offered by St. Louis Fed
- 478 resources available to the public
- 514 resources available to teachers
- Kindergarden to adult
- Teacher portal: syllabus, student tracking, student testing
- Integration in LMS: Canvas, more to come soon

EconLowdown on data literacy

- 66 resources:
  - Data visualization
  - Understanding data (from FRED Blog)
  - FRED Interactives

- Everything is free

Data Literacy for Librarians Pilot

- Instruction:

- Badging:

Badging and Micro Credential

- Individual badges:
  - Are aligned with specific ACRL IL frames;
  - Can be collected in any order.
- The set of 7 badges builds into a credential.
- Credly is integrated into Canvas and will issue the badges and the credential automatically.

Data Literacy for Librarians

FEDERAL RESERVE
BANK of
ST. LOUIS

- <https://www.econlowdown.org>
- <https://research.stlouisfed.org/info-services/data-literacy-for-librarians/>

FEDERAL RESERVE
BANK of
ST. LOUIS

CENTRAL TO AMERICA'S ECONOMY®